In the published version of this article, the following sentence appears in the 'Methods' section under 'LCMS² data processing and analysis':

"The results from FBMN, DEREPLICATOR+, CSI:FingerID, MolDiscovery, CANOPUS and NPClassifier were combined based on the previous work published by Osorio-Ramirez (<https://www.mdpi.com/2072-6651/17/4/150>) using a custom script derived from the MolNetEnhancer workflow [38], which is openly accessible at <https://github.com/froz9/MolNetEnhancerMod>."

The URL '<https://www.mdpi.com/2072-6651/17/4/150>' was provided in place of a formal citation. This should have been included as a full reference. The article has now been updated to cite OsorioRamirez et al. appropriately, and the reference list has been amended accordingly.
